Notes for JOHN WESLEY PROFFITT:
12 August 1828, John Wesley Proffitt received a Tennessee land grant (No. 155500 book 15, page 65) for 50 acres in Jefferson County. On this same date he is shown to have received another 50 acres in Jefferson County, in Book 15, Page 68. John was appointed overseer of a road of the second class from the Sevier

County line to Joseph Hill's Home on 12 September 1829. The 30 June 1841 school enumeration for Jefferson County, district #35, indicates John and Susannah had a daughter that would have been born Abt 1826. Her name and other information not known by this compiler.

Notes for SUSANNAH WEBB:

All of Susannah (Webb) Proffitt's children (with the possible exception of a female daughter, name and life activities unknown to this compiler) moved to Yancey County, North Carolina sometime after Susannah and her husband, John, died. They are found living with, or near their uncle David Proffitt in Elk Shoals. The date and place of John and Susannah's death is unknown. A grave site has not been found for them in Tennessee. It is most likely that they were in Yancey County, North Carolina when they died.

- vi. DAVID PROFFITT, b. October 11, 1808, Elk Shoal, Yancey Co., North Carolina; d. February 2, 1892, Elk Shoal, Yancey Co., North Carolina; m. ELIZABETH WILSON, March 1, 1826, North Carolina; b. April 1, 1809, Bald Creek, Yancey Co., North Carolina; d. May 13, 1885, Elk Shoal, Yancey Co., North Carolina.

Notes for DAVID PROFFITT:

David was a farmer and trader. The old Proffitt farm is now called "willow Brook Farm". David must have been a very likeable person. The Proffitt's and Webb's from East Tennessee kept coming back to him in North Carolina. In the 1880 census David Proffitt is shown as 72 years old and in the Wilson and Harriett Hensley household.

He met MARY C. TEMPLIN. She was born Abt. 1848 in Cocke Co., Tennessee, and died Bef. 1880 in Jefferson Co., Tennessee.

Notes for BENAHAH PROFFITT:

Benajah never married but he fathered James and Martha by Mary Templin. After Mary's death the children were taken to their grandfather Templin's home to live. Mrs. Daisy Stinnett of Chesnut Hill stated that her mother told her that Martha and James were unhappy there, that grandfather Templin had remarried and his new wife and children were mean to them. Martha took James and ran away and went to their father. Benajah then raised the children himself and left them property when he died. After James Walter grew up and married Nancy Malinda Ketner, Benajah lived with them.

Notes for ALAN VERN NUTTER:

Alan Vern Nutter was born on January 15, 1925, to Albert and Abbie Nutter in Long Beach, California. The family returned to Waynoka, Oklahoma shortly after Alan's birth.

Alan attended the Rose Valley School until eighth grade when he attended the Waynoka High School. He graduated from the Waynoka High School in 1943.

After high school Alan went to California to work until he was old enough to enlist in the Army Air Corp and serve in World War II. He attended pilot training and qualified to fly fighter planes.

Alan and Emma Louise Curtis were married on January 28, 1946 in Waynoka.

When World War II ended Alan was released from service and returned to the Waynoka area where he and Emalu purchased the Curtis homestead and started a dairy and a family. A son, Lester and a daughter, Emabeth, were born while in Waynoka.

During the Korean Conflict Alan was recalled into the Air Force. He served in Korea in the Statue of Liberty Fighter Wing. At that time Alan and Emalu determined to stay in the Air Force and make a career of military service.

While stationed in Victoria, Texas another daughter, Rebecca, and another son, Steve, were born. After serving a tour of duty in Vietnam Alan retired from the Air Force at the rank of Lt. Colonel in June 1967. Alan and Emalu returned to Waynoka again to farm. Alan also graduated from Northwestern Oklahoma State University in 1973 and began teaching in the Waynoka Schools. Alan retired from teaching in 1987.

Alan died on December 4, 2002, in Clinton, Oklahoma after an extended illness.

Alan had many interests during his life. His military career enabled him to enjoy extensive travel throughout the world. He was stationed in Europe, Southeast Asia, Central America, as well as many places in the United States. Alan enjoyed raising and riding his Arabian horses. He was active in the North American Trail Riding Association and served as President of the Oklahoma Equestrian Trail Riding Association. Besides his family, the love of his life was flying. Early in his flying career he was offered an opportunity to become a member of the Air Forces elite flying team, the Thunderbirds. Alan decided not to accept, as it would take time away from his family. He received many awards and commendations during his life. Some that he especially prized were being elected to the Waynoka Teachers Hall of Fame, North American Equestrian Trail-riding Championships and a Distinguished Flying Cross, Bronze Star and Air Medal.

His wife of 50 years, Emalu, his parents, Abbie and Albert Nutter, and one sister, Francis Geary, preceded Alan in death. He is survived by two sons and daughters-in-law, Les and June Nutter of Florida, and Steve and Leslie Nutter of Waynoka, two daughters and sons-in-law, Emabeth and Sam Sidders of Gage, and Rebecca and Dana Cravens, two sisters and brother-in-law, Alberta and Louis Bissantz and Linda Kay and Danny Strohmeyer both of Waynoka, seven brothers and sisters-in-law, Aaron and Dell Nutter of Waynoka, Gerald and Ruth Nutter of Waynoka, Donald and Lois Nutter of Waynoka, Jimmie and Lena Nutter of Newcastle, Larry and Jean Nutter of Crescent, Ray Nutter of Waynoka and Paul Nutter of Waynoka. Alan is also survived by eight grandchildren: Melissa and Pat Carey of Rhode Island, Christine Hunter of Rhode Island, Vince and Nicole Sidders of Waynoka, Marty and Bonni Sidders of Alva, Ryan Huntley of Chickasha, Curtis, Mitchel and Stephanie Nutter of Waynoka. Alan is survived by five great-grandchildren: Emma Jean Carey, Abigail Carey, Keely Nutter, Brittney Hunter and Jordan Hunter all of Rhode Island.

Notes for SAMUEL CURTIS SIDDERS, JR.:

Sam served, on active duty, in the U.S. Army from 1965 to 1967 and remained in the U.S. Army Reserve until 1972. He received his Basic Training in Forth Polk, Louisiana, after which he was transferred to Fort Ord, California for Advanced Infantry Training. His permanent duty assignment was with Co. B., 1st. Battalion of the 51st. Infantry Brigade. This unit was a part of the 4th. Armored Division of the Seventh Army. The unit was located in Ulm, West Germany and later in Crailsheim, West Germany. Sam received an Honorable Discharge from the Army in 1972.

Sam and his second wife, Emma, owned and operated an art gallery in Oklahoma City, OK for about 6 years after completing college. In 1978 they moved to Shattuck, Oklahoma, where they purchase Sam's father's interest in the firm of "Sidders-Kemp Rebuilders." This business was the former "Sidders Auto Works", that had been started by Sam's father and uncle in 1940. In 1980 they became sole owners of the business and changed the name of the firm to "Sidders Auto Rebuilders". The business ceased operations in 2002 and the properties were sold to David Kies of Shattuck, Oklahoma. With the permission of both Sam and his father, Mr. Kies opened another auto repair business at that location under the name of "Sidders-Kies Auto Rebuilders".
